VERIFIED CLAIM OF SELECT PORTFOLIO SERVICING, INC.

COMES NOW Select Portfolio Servicing, Inc. ("Claimant"), and pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 985 and Rule G of the Supplemental Rules to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, hereby files its claim to the property sought to be forfeited, and in support thereof, states as follows:

1. Claimant is a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Utah and is qualified to do business as a foreign corporation under the laws of the State of Missouri.

2. PNC Bank, NA ("Bank") is the current holder of a certain note secured by a deed of trust encumbering some or all of the property described in plaintiff's Complaint (the "Property").

3. Claimant is the attorney-in-fact and loan servicer for Bank and is therefore a proper party to make this verified claim.

4. Claimant asserts an interest in some or all of the Property sought to be forfeited in this action in that Bank holds a first in priority and perfected deed of trust encumbering the Property to secure a certain promissory note dated April 9, 2004 executed by James Tebeau ("Borrower").

5. Said promissory note has been in default since November 1, 2010 when Borrower failed to make the scheduled monthly installment payment which is due on the first of each month until the loan reaches maturity on May 15, 2034.

6. As of January 5, 2011, the unpaid principal was $376,596.14; interest accrued in the amount of $3,308.48; and late fees had been assessed in the amount of $475.32 for a total amount of $380,379.94. Interest continues to accrue at a per annum rate of 3.375%.

7. Claimant objects to the forfeiture and condemnation of the Property sought to be forfeited for the reason Bank has a prior and perfected security interest in the Property.

VERIFICATION

I, Mindy C. Leetham, of Select Portfolio Servicing, Inc., agent and attorney-in-fact for PNC Bank, NA, hereby verify and swear under penalty of perjury that the above facts are true and correct.
